

The 400-year-old ancient village destroyed by the fire, the last primitive tribe in China, how beautiful is Wengding?

The most distressing and regrettable incident last night was the destruction of Wengding, the "last primitive tribe in China" by a fire. Before that, Weng Ding was quiet and beautiful like a paradise.

"Some people have come a long way, but they have never gone far." Many people met Weng Ding from Hu Ge's video. But I believe that until now, many people still don't know that there is such a unique and original place within the border.

Wongding, located in the southwestern border of the motherland, is famous Wa Township.
The word Wengding means "clouds and mists" in Wa language.

In 2016, I came here and felt deeply The beauty of "clouds and mists" here. Surrounded by mountains, dense forests, and smoke rising in a deep forest, the ancient village of Wengding is immediately in front of the shadows of this ancient tree.

Compared to other famous places in Yunnan, Cangyuan is too remote. Wengding Village was still in primitive society until the liberation, so many seals of primitive society have been preserved.

each A visitor to Onding will be attracted by the primitive and mysterious here. There are various traditional elements of the Wa villages, such as the gate, the Zhaizhu, the Salar house, the singing field, the sacrificial house, the wooden drum house, the head pile, the bull head pile, etc., which exudes a strong primitive tribal atmosphere.

Most of Onding's women smoke, and they have a tradition of blackening their teeth with plant juices, which they think protects their teeth and looks beautiful.

In 2006, this village was included in the intangible cultural heritage protection list. However, there are not many people living here. When I went there in 2016, the population of Wengding Village was already less than 300.

我在这里用双臂丈量过千年古树，我在这里用心跟着脚步步步微笑着与村民相遇，我的朋友想我如数家珍的介绍着他们佤族的一点点。那时瓦王府在装修没得一观。本相约在前往，但已成终身遗憾！

The netizen Xian Feng said: I have used my arms here to measure the thousand-year-old tea tree, and I am here to follow my footsteps. Step by step, smiling and meeting with the villagers, my friends thought I introduced them bit by bit of the Wa people.

Netizen 4370 said: I went there five years ago and it was very beautiful. The ancient tree tea there is very delicious. I buy more than 50 kilograms every year. Yesterday I said I wanted to buy it. It's a pity today.

Netizen Yuying Zhilian said: Today I am going to Wengding Village from Kunming to Lincang, and I am still in the hotel in Lincang. This makes me so sad...
